REMOVAL NOTICE.
Dr. Wm. Frye desires the public to know that he has moved from 12th and Vine streets, where he held a lucrative practice for the past four years, to more commodious quarters at 1021-23 Grand avenue, 219-21 Missouri building. Dr. Frye will be pleased to see all his former patients and new ones as he guarantees satisfaction to all.

The Allen Chapel Boosters entertained Mr. Moore, International Boy's Work Director of the Y. M. C. A., at a fellowship dinner at the Y. M. C. A. cafeteria Tuesday evening. Mr. Moore commended these young men in their efforts in Christian work and urged them to do greater things.

The Kansas City Sun can be found on sale in Chicago at A. D. Hayes, 3640 State Street.

In the last issue of the Sun we stated that Mrs. Cora Johnson was united in marriage and it should have been Miss Cora Jackson.

Mrs. Caddie Witcher left last Saturday evening for Chicago, Ill. to take a course in beauty culture. She will be away several months.

The Charity ball by the Clippers will eclipse anything given this season. Don't forget the date—Monday evening, November 6, at Lyric hall.

Grant Moore, Mr. Floyd Carter, Mr. A. Hill, Mrs. Hattie Founts, Miss Toliver, Miss Burnetta Johnson, Miss Melissa Merry, Mrs. Mattie Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Bright, Mrs. Annie Renlour, Mrs. Narciss Sparks, Mrs. Georgia Crockett, Mr. James Coleman all attended the Knights of Tabor banquet in Atchison, Kansas last Saturday and reported a delightful time.

ST. STEPHENS BAPTIST CHURCH.
Services were well attended at the St. Stephen Baptist Church. At 11:00 a. m. the pastor preached an excellent sermon. At 2:00 p. m. Hon. Roscoe Simmons delivered a masterpiece concerning the coming election. At 8:00 p. m. the pastor preached. Sister Dora Kline is improving. Next Sunday at 3:00 p. m. the Rev. Wm. H. Thomas, pastor of Allen Chapel and his choir and congregation will hold service. The public is invited.

KANSAS CITY, KAS.

By Mrs. Zenobia Nelson.
The invalid son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith, 609 New Jersey avenue, left for Winfield, Kas., Saturday evening to receive treatment at the Institute for the Feeble-minded.

Mrs. J. H. Hadley, 1915 North Third street, left for Oakland, Cal., for an indefinite stay.

Miss Hazel Harris, 1915 North Third street, left for Oakland, Cal., for an indefinite stay.

A large crowd attended the Metropolitan church Sunday morning.

Rev. T. Waper of Eighth Street Baptist church preached at evening services. Mr. Ford of Texas rendered two solos.

Mrs. Katie Bradshaw and Mrs. Mamie Drew of Kansas City, Mo., were the guests of Mrs. L. B. Hadley, 1915 North Third street, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Shepherd of 1600 North Ninth street will leave next week for Hoge, Kas., to spend a few weeks with her brother, Mr. John Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper of Independence, Mo., were guests at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hart, 1043 Grandview boulevard, in honor of the eighth wedding anniversary.

Prof. A. J. Neely, supervisor of Negro schools, will address the Forum Sunday, October 29. The Forum is increasing in attendance.

Last Sunday the president, Mrs. V. Dwigins, delivered an excellent address, "A Few Impressions," which was a rich and rare treat.

$1.75 and $2.00 will start any child to school with good shoes on. See Page at 1507 E. 18th St.

ARGENTINE, KANSAS.

(By Mrs. Ophelia Jackson.)
A club, known as the Needlecraft, met and organized at the residence of Mrs. Fannie Carter on last Friday afternoon, October 20. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Carrie Ross, president; Fannie Carter, vice president; Mrs. Hettie Cotton, secretary; and Mrs. Odessa Williams, treasurer. The Choral Society gave a party for Mrs. Victoria Daniel on Saturday evening, October 14. The evening was pleasantly spent listening to an impromptu program of vocal and instrumental music. We regret very much to lose Mrs. McDaniel, as she leaves for the East on the first of November to be gone indefinitely. The first sacrament of the Conference year "I" held at St. Paul's Chapel Sunday, October 29, at 3 o'clock. The Sunday school of the A. M. E. church has changed from morning to 2:30 o'clock. An excellent program was rendered last Sunday. Miss Cora Hannon, teacher in Rosedale public school, gave an interesting talk on the subject, "Fostering Interest," and Miss Etta Kelly, Domestic Science teacher of Western University, gave a very instructive talk on "Individual Worth." Both addresses were well received. Miss Leola Morris of Oklahoma City is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morris. Mrs. Esther Black of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harris.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.
One addition was made last Sunday. Service good and largely attended. This was prohibition day. The B. Y. P. U. meets at 5:30. There was an increase of 20 last Sunday. Sunday was the last rally day and Mesdames Hill and Jones turned in about $600 of which the former raised about $400. Mrs. Samantha Walker and Mrs. McWilliams have returned from an extended trip to Illinois and Colorado. We were glad to see the bride, Mrs. Eva Gibson, at the B. Y. P. U. last Sunday.

on the morning of October 21st from 10:30 to 1:30 occurred one of the grandest treats of the season in the musical sphere, which was the recital of Madam Nelle Hendricks, who has made a reputation among music lovers.

Madam Hendricks has been under the direction of Madam Lula Summers, whose reputation reaches from coast to coast.
Madam Hendricks, whose beautiful home was decorated for the occasion with ferns, palms and cut flowers, was taxed to its capacity with music lovers and friends eager to hear each strain of music rendered by her.
The entire program, as rich with instrumental and vocal solos, which included selections from Beethoven, Chopin and Rachmaninoff. Highest comments are due Madam Hendricks on her scholarship in music. Her many friends take this as a means to extend gratitude to her for the rare treat and wish for her future success and recommend her to all persons who are ambitious for training in music, as we are assured of her ability to instruct.
